

Press Release:

Ethos Three Architecture Welcomes New Interior Designer – Lori Gordillo

April 24th, 2014 - e|3 is pleased to announce one of our newest team members, Lori Gordillo. Lori is a registered Interior Designer, who has been working as an Interior Designer in the Las Vegas valley since 1994. She relocated to Las Vegas immediately after receiving her Bachelor of Science degree in Interior Design from California Polytechnic State University at San Luis Obispo, California. Her experience in commercial interiors brings with her a wealth of knowledge and architectural experience in a variety of project types including but not limited to workplace, healthcare and retail. Her expertise covers the spectrum from programming and space planning through design development, code analysis, construction documents and post occupancy review. She creatively bridges the gap between Interior Design and Architecture and her extraordinary attention to detail and capable leadership make her a great addition to our team.

Lori brings with her not only her talents but also her local perspective and rooted professional relationships throughout the Las Vegas Valley. She was the Lead Interior Designer and Project Manager on several award winning projects, including US Micro and Shufflemaster. In addition, she has continued to exceed the expectations of her loyal clients that have made the transition with her from previous places of employment.

Lori's clients appreciate her confidence, honesty, decisiveness and dedication to excellence. Careful coordination and attention to detail are essential to interior design work, and Lori has established a reputation for uncovering each client's preferred outcome, balancing aesthetics and functionality to create the perfect space, and maintaining communication and coordination throughout each phase of the project to achieve the desired end result.

Lori is a welcome addition to our firm because she has excellent design and management skills and she takes the time to understand the client's vision. She focuses on customer service and her reputation for repeat clients precedes her. I know our clients' will love working with her.
